Genoua, July 24.

THis Week arrived here the Loyal Goring, the Leghorneſe and the Succeſs from Cadiz and Alicant. The Duke of Hanouer is returned to Venice, during his ſtay here his Highneſs was accompanied by four Gentlemen deputed for that purpoſe by the Senate, who ſhewed him all that was worth ſeeing in this City, and was ſplendidly entertained by ſeveral of the Nobility. The Senate have made choice of Signior Franciſco Maria Centurione to go and reſide on the part of this Republick at the Court of France.

Venice, June 22. By a Saique arrived from Spalato, we have advice that the Baſſa of Boſſina had in purſuance of the repeated Orders he had received from the Port, begun his march towards Hungary, having appointed the Baſſa of Arcigovina to command the few Troops he left in Dalmatia. Theſe Letters add, that the Chevalier Fanco had made an Incurſion into the Enemies Territories, and had plundred and burnt 10 Villages, and the Bourg of Ochluch; and that meeting with a Party of 500 Turks, he defeated them, killing 150 upon the place, and putting the reſt to the flight. The Letters from Preveſa of the 13th Inſtant gave an account that Captain General Moroſini was then ready to ſail with the Fleet of the Republick towards the Levant; And ſince we have advice of their arrival in the Golf of Coron, and that the General had Landed his Forces to attack the Fortreſs of Calamata, the taking whereof will facilitate the Conqueſt of ſeveral other places in the Morea. It's ſaid that ſeveral thouſand Greeks have joyned the Venetian Army. They write from Rome that Cardinal Pio, in an Audiance he had of the Pope the 13th Inſtant, had with great earneſtneſs prayed him to aſſiſt the Emperor with a further ſupply of Money for the Service of this Campagne againſt the Turks; And that the Marquis de Parella likewiſe ſollicited a ſum of Money to be employed for the maintaining the Troops in Croatia. We are informed by a Veſſel arrived from Zant, that they had news there of the Turkiſh Fleet being gone towards Rhodes.

Warſaw, July 6. The Great General of Poland is gone to the Rendezvous near Leopol, and in the mean time has repeated his Orders to the Troops of the Crown to haſten their march thither. The Great General of Lithuania is likewiſe gone to put himſelf at the head of the Troops of that Dutchy.

Vienna, July 26. The Letters from the Camp before Newheuſel of the 21. Inſtant tell us, They battered the place with 32 pieces of Cannon and 14 Mortars; That the firſt had made a breach in one of the attackt Baſtions, and that the latter had laid great part of the Town in Aſhes; That they had let four foot Water out of the Ditch; That their Miners had paſſed it, and had lodged themſelves at the foot of the Baſtion, and that they doubted not but in two or three days they ſhould have filled up the Ditch, and be ready for a General Aſſault; That the Duke of Lorrain had written to the Baſſa of Newheuſel, to let him know that in the ſame manner he treated the Chriſtian Slaves now in his hands, he and the Garriſon muſt expect to be dealt with, if the place be taken; but that the Baſſa would not receive this Letter, cauſing his Men to fire upon the perſon that brought it. It is confirmed that the Turks are in a conſiderable Body near Buda; and it's generally believed they will attack Gran; The Duke of Lorrain has a watchful Eye upon them; and ſo ſoon as they move that way, will paſs the Danube with all the Imperial Cavalry and greateſt part of the Foot to meet them. His Highneſs has in the mean time ſent out Colonel Heuſler with 600 Horſe to learn news of them; And Count Stirum has followed him with another ſtrong Party. The Palatin of Hungary parted from hence this week, having undertaken to joyn the Imperial Army with 6000 Hungarians.

Vienna, July 26. An Officer is arrived here from the Camp before Newheuſel, who informs us that the Beſiegers have fixed their Miners, that they have made a great Breach with their Cannon; That their Bombs have done great execution in the Town, and that according to all appearance the Beſieged cannot hold out 10 days longer. Yeſterday arrived here 4000 Foot of the Elector of Cologne's Forces; And the Troops of Franconia are, we hear, come to Stockenau, from whence they will march directly to Hungary. The Elector of Bavaria will part from hence this Evening to put himſelf at the head of his Troops. It's ſaid the Turks are marching towards Gran.

Hamburg, July 26. The Letters from Copenhagen give an account of the arrival there of Sir Gabriel Sylvius, Envoy Extraordinary from his Majeſty of Great Britain to the King of Denmark, who is now in Norway; His Majeſty was the 6th of this Month at Dronthem, and from thence intended to go to Bergue. Theſe Magiſtrates have accepted the Elector of Saxony's Mediation for the compoſing the Differences between the Duke of Zell and this City, and have ſent to his Electoral Highneſs to inform him how this matter ſtands at preſent. They write from Leopol of the 5th Inſtant, that the Sieur Laſniski being abroad with a Party of Poles, was informed by ſome Priſoners he took, that a great Body of Tartars was expected at Caminiec to joyn the Turkiſh Forces commanded by Soliman Baſſa: That beſides theſe the Turks have ſeveral thouſand Men on the Frontiers of Valachia to ſecure that Province. And that the Enemies deſign this Summer is only to act defenſively. The Army of Poland is appointed to Rendezvous the 20th of this month near Leopol; It will be compoſed of 30000 men; The Forces of Lithuania are about 20000, and the Auxiliary Troops of Brandenburgh are between 2 and 3000 more, ſo that the whole Army, beſides the Coſſacks, will conſiſt of about 50000 men. It's believed the King of Poland will not go himſelf into the Field, but that he will leave the Command of the Army to the Crown General. The Moſcovites are very quiet, and it's hoped the differences between them and the Poles will be amicably compoſed.

Bruſſels, July 30. Our Governor Don Franciſco Antonio d'Agurto returned from Flanders on Friday laſt.
